

Open WICC meeting seminar on Thursday August 31 afternoon

Presentations related to primary care classifications

Salle du Conseil, Faculté de médecine de Lyon Est, 14h-18h

Marc jamouille (Belgium): New online availability of ICPC and Q CODES/Report of Q-Codes Group

Jean-Karl Soler (Malta): ICPC to research the process of diagnosis

Luciana Tanno (France): Representation of allergic and related conditions in the ICD-11

Christopher Harrison, Joan Henderson, Graeme Miller, Helena Britt (Australia): Predicting patient use of general practice services in Australia using ICPC-2

Simone Postma (The Netherlands): Developing an ICF questionnaire for primary care

Elena Cardillo (Italy): Terminology Support Services in the context of Italian Federated Electronic Healthcare

Graeme Miller (Australia): Medication management and adverse drug events in Australian general practice patients

Laurent Letrilliart & Louis Bernard (France): Drug prescription in primary care: what are the objectives?

Thomas Kühlein (Germany): To exclude diagnoses instead of diagnosing - the concept of preventable dangerous outcomes in primary care and how to classify them in ICPC

Olesya Vynnyk (Ukraine): ICPC-2 road in Ukraine

Benjamin Fauquert (Belgium): ICPC-3 as an ontology

Philippe Ameline (France): Risk management and classification: why should the future be told in a different language?

Stefan Darmoni (France): HeTOP, crosslingual terminology server in health

François Gueyffier (France): NBP – net benefit prediction: a method to introduce quantitative information into therapeutic medical decision making